

Connecticut Association of School Psychologists

Southbury, Connecticut 06488

H. Thomas Brant, President * Steven P. Mendelsohn, President-Elect

For Immediate Release: CASP names Rebecca Comizio 2019 Connecticut School Psychologist of the year and other award recipients.

Rebecca Comizio, MA, MS, NCSP School Psychologist at New Canaan Country School, New Canaan, CT has been selected to be the 2018-2019 Connecticut School Psychologist of the Year. Selection for this award is based on nominations and recommendations from supervisors and colleagues. Rebecca is recognized for her outstanding work with students, staff and families and her tireless commitment to supporting excellence and best practices in the field of school psychology. Her creative efforts in using social media to provide professional development and her commitment to maintaining the highest professional standards in school psychology are just several of the reasons that she has been awarded this prestigious honor.

Presidential Citation

- Steven Mendelsohn, MA, CAS
- Sarah Pinheiro, MA, CAS
- Lynn Sellon, MA, CAS
- Natalie Starling, Ph.D., BCBA

Interns of the Year

- Emily Winter-Fairfield University
- Julia Spencer-Southern Connecticut State University
- Hannah Brown-University of Connecticut
- Sierra Trudel-University of Hartford

Award recipients will be honored June 5, 2019 at Abate Restaurant and at the Fall 2019 Conference.

Additional information regarding the Connecticut Association of School Psychologists can be obtained by contacting Sarah Pinheiro, CASP Secretary at pinheiro.sarah@newfairfieldschools.org